DEFINITIONS

Custody Responsibility Date (CRD) - The date on which an inmate becomes state responsible whether located in a jail or a DOC institution.

Earned Sentence Credit (ESC) - Time earned in accordance with COV §53.1-202.3, Rate at which sentence credits may be earned; prerequisites, in one of four levels with rates ranging from 0 to 4.5 days earned per 30 days served for ESC-1 or 0 to 15 days earned per 30 days served for ESC-2, which will be applied to reduce the inmate's maximum term of incarceration. ESC-1 and ESC-2 apply to those inmates whose felony offenses were committed on or after January 1, 1995.

Exemplary Good Time (GCT/EGT) - Time awarded in accordance with COV §53.1-116, What records and policy jailer shall keep; how time deducted or added for felons and misdemeanants; payment of fine and costs by person committed to jail until he pays, at the rate of 5 days for each 30 days served, awarded by a jailor to an inmate for the performance of institutional work assignments, participation in classes, or participation in local work force programs.

Extraordinary Good Time (EGT) - Time earned in accordance with COV §53.1-197, Credit allowed for career and technical educational or other educational training at a rate ranging from 1 to 5 days earned per month served for those inmates whose offenses were committed prior to July 1, 1981, who do not elect to participate in the Good Conduct Allowance System (GCA). All such time earned will reduce the term of imprisonment from which parole eligibility is computed.

Good Conduct Allowance (GCA) - Time earned in accordance with COV §53.1-198, Certain persons to choose good conduct system to COV §53.1-202.1, Limitation upon applicability of this article in one of four classes with rates ranging from 0 to 30 days earned per 30 days served which will be applied to reduce the inmate's maximum term of imprisonment. GCA applies to those inmates whose felony offenses were committed on or after July 1, 1981 and before January 1, 1995 or who have opted into GCA from GCT. Misdemeanor convictions committed on or after July 1, 1981, will continue to be calculated under the GCA System. One-half of the credit should be applied to reduce the parole eligibility date. Misdemeanor convictions committed after July 1, 2008 are not eligible for parole in accordance with COV §53.1-153, Eligibility of persons sentenced to jails for more than twelve months.

Good Conduct Time (GCT) - Time earned in accordance with COV §53.1-196, Good conduct credits of persons convicted after October 1, 1942; effect of credit upon eligibility for parole at a constant rate of 10 days earned per 20 days served only by those inmates whose offenses were committed prior to July 1, 1981, who do not opt to participate in the Good Conduct Allowance (GCA) system. All such time earned will reduce the term of imprisonment from which parole eligibility is computed.

Initial Classification Date (ICD) - The date on which the inmate was initially assigned to a security level.

Inmate - A person who is incarcerated in a Virginia Department of Corrections facility or who is Virginia Department of Corrections responsible to serve a state sentence.

Interim Review - A review of an inmate's good time earning level that covers the last 12 month period and is conducted at a time prior to the inmate's next scheduled annual review.

Jail Annual Review - A uniform yearly review of an inmate's classification, needs, and objectives. The Custody Responsibility Date (CRD) is used to establish the review date.

Judicial Good Time (JGT) - Time awarded in accordance with COV §53.1-129, Order permitting prisoners to work on state, county, city, town, certain private property or nonprofit organization property; bond of person in charge of prisoners, by a Circuit Court to inmates for work performed on public property.

Unclassified Inmate - New intakes into the Department of Corrections (DOC) who do not have a Custody Responsibility Date (CRD) and Parole Violators before their revocation date.

PURPOSE

This operating procedure provides guidance to Sheriffs and Regional Jail Administrators for administering Good Conduct Time (GCT), Good Conduct Allowance (GCA), Earned Sentence Credit (ESC), Exemplary Good Time (GCT/EGT), Extraordinary Good Time (EGT) and Judicial Good Time (JGT) systems to award good time to qualified Department of Corrections (DOC) inmates confined in local jails.

PROCEDURE

I. Good Time Award Eligibility and Processing

A. The inmate must be confined in a local or regional jail to qualify for good time awards under this operating procedure and DOC staff must compute the inmate's time and authorize the inmate's release.

B. Processing Good Time Awards and Adjusting GCA and ESC Class Level Assignments:

1. To award an inmate GCT/EGT, EGT, JGT, or adjust the inmate's GCA or ESC Class Level assignment, jail staff will complete the Class Level Evaluation and GCT/EGT/JCT Awards 830_F4 and forward to courtandlegal@vadoc.virginia.gov or by mail to:

VI. Awarding Extraordinary Good Time and Judicial Good Time

- A. Jail staff may award EGT at the rate of 5 days for each 30 days served to an inmate for the performance of institutional work assignments, participation in classes, or participation in local work force programs.
1. Jail staff can award EGT for time served up to issuance of the inmate's CRD.
 2. EGT awards are unlimited for inmates serving misdemeanor or felony sentences for crimes committed before January 1, 1995.
- B. The Circuit Court may award JGT to inmate's for work performed on public property.
1. The rate of JGT is set by order of the Circuit Court awarding the JGT.

2. JGT awards are granted by Court order when an inmate is serving misdemeanor or felony sentences for crimes committed before January 1, 1995.

C. The total of all good time awarded to inmates serving felony sentences for crimes committed after January 1, 1995 is limited to 4.5 days earned per 30 days served for ESC-1 or 15 days earned per 30 days served for ESC-2.

VII. Interim Reviews

A. Interim reviews are appropriate when it is necessary to ensure that the assigned good time earning rate accurately reflects the inmate's sustained performance.

B. The DOC recommends that jail staff not submit a change in an inmate's good time class level or an inmate's EGT, JGT, and GCT award within the last 60 days of an inmate's expected discharge date.

C. An interim review may be appropriate when jail staff:

1. Anticipate the inmate's release from custody prior to the next annual review date and there exists a compelling reason, based on behavioral considerations, to change the inmate's good time earning level.

2. Observes a dramatic change in the inmate's adjustment that indicates the inmate's current good time earning level is inappropriate.
